

You're Invited.... to help Marshall County “Turn on the Lights” and “Connect the Grid”

Community Conversation on Economic Development

- When: Wednesday, November 17, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
- Where: Swan Lake Resort, 5203 Plymouth-LaPorte Trail, Plymouth
- Who: Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to attend—including young professionals, parents, citizens, and community and business leaders.
- Why: National and local experts in community and economic development will share emerging trends and opportunities to benefit rural counties. Keynote address by Richard Longworth, author of Caught in the Middle: America's Heartland in the Age of Globalism.
*Free copy of book provided to the first fifty (50) people who register to attend.
- Cost: $15 registration fee for the day (includes program materials and lunch)
- RSVP: Register and pay by calling MCCF at 574-935-5159 by November 12 or visit www.marshallcountycf.org to register with credit card.

This event is designed to provide a productive platform for determining innovative solutions, sharing new ideas and connecting existing vital community resources.

The session is convened with major financial support from:

The Indiana Humanities Council

The Bowen Center for Public Affairs at Ball State University

Indiana Humanities Council
Think. Read. Talk.

Local planning partners include:

Marshall County Community Foundation

Marshall County Economic Development Corporation

Bremen Chamber of Commerce

United Way of Marshall County

Additional financial assistance provided by:

